FROM NYC : JACK HARDY! October 16- Workshop and Concert

The CSA meeting for October will be held on SATURDAY October 16, 1pm at the Mystic Chamber of Commerce Conference Room. (directions on page 2)

From New York City, CSA is pleased to bring you one of today's songwriting legends, Jack Hardy. Jack is known around the world as both a singer-songwriter, and as a mentor to aspiring songwriters, having taught such greats as Suzanne Vega, Shaun Colvin, David Massengill, and many more.

For complete information and bio on Jack, you can visit his website at www.jackhardy.com. As part of CSA's pro workshop series, Jack will be presenting a half day songwriting workshop and critique. People travel far and wide to have their songs critiqued by Jack, and this is your opportunity to have quality discussion time with a figure of worldwide stature. Following the workshop and time for a supper break, Jack and his Trio will present an evening concert.

The key to success in music and songwriting is taking advantage of opportunities when that arise. this is one such opportunity. The cost for the workshop, which includes free admission to the concert (and free gourmet coffee) is $30.

NOTE: Song critiques will be done in the order that registrations are received.

We hope to see you there, and please bring a friend.

COMING UP

Nov 09 in Middletown: -- From New York: MARCI GELLER presents the realities of life as an Indie Artist. Marci was at the Songwriting Conference in April and was a hit with the folks there. We're glad to have her back.

.To participate in the critique session, bring a song on cassette or CD (or do it live), with 40 copies of typed lyric sheets, and receive constructive feedback. Critique sessions are a good forum for works in progress or rough demos. For best feedback, note on your lyric sheets the intended genre and audience for your song, and what your goals are (i.e. picked up by a commercial artist, self-produce, etc.). The programs at regular CSA monthly meetings are free to members, $5 to non-members, applicable toward membership if you join within 30 days. Members are encouraged to bring a friend who might be interested in what CSA offers. .

DIRECTIONS TO MEETING LOCATIONS

How to Get There!

Directions to Mystic Chamber of Commerce Conference Room (14 Holmes St) for the JACK HARDY WORKSHOP/CRITIQUE: Coming North on I-95, take Exit 91. Go right off the Exit onto Allyn St. Go about 2 miles and come to a light and the intersection of Rt 1. Turn left onto Rt 1 and go a short way to the 5-way intersection overlooking Main St, Mystic. Proceed down the Main Street of Mystic, across the drawbridge, to the flagpole (Holmes St). Turn left at the flagpole onto Holmes. Pass a few storefronts and you'll see a red brick building, #14 Holmes St. To park, turn right just before the brick building onto Church St, and park in the lot behind the brick building. The entrance for the Chamber of Commerce is at the far right as you face the rear of the building. Go down the corridor. The room is on the right. FREE Gourmet Coffee!

Directions to Mystic Union Baptist Church for the JACK HARDY CONCERT Coming North on I-95, take Exit 91. Go right off the Exit onto Allyn St. Go about 2 miles and come to a light and the intersection of Rt 1. Turn left onto Rt 1 and go a short way to the 5-way intersection. Church is on the left. Make a hairpin left to get to the parking lot.

Directions to Griswoldville Chapel in Wethersfield, CT for "Day of Praise II"

IMPRESARIOS WANTED!

Don't limit your creativity to writing and performing.
Become an IMPRESARIO- organize and promote a CSA entertainment event!

CSA has had some exciting recent success with targeted events such as our 25th Anniversary Songwriting and Performance Conference and the Day of Praise songshare and dinner/concert. We know there is opportunity to do more, but we need your help. We want to create involvement opportunities for the membership and performance opportunities for as many folks as possible. Specifically, we want to sponsor a series of genre-specific events. The categories we have agreed upon are

ROCK, R & B / JAZZ, FOLK / BLUEGRASS, COUNTRY, POP / INSTRUMENTAL, SPIRITUAL / INSPIRATIONAL, and ALTERNATIVE.

Each event should be presented at a public venue and be self-funding (concert tickets and registration fees should cover all costs and hopefully generate a net profit) The event format would be along the lines of the recent Day of Praise program, which included a songshare /discussion session, supper, and concert. CSA will provide guidance, promotional support, and some general coordination of the schedule for the several events. But the creation and management of the event will be up to you.

How do you get started? You can be a committee of one or a larger working group. The first step is to say "yes" I want to be involved with this, and pick the genre you want to participate on. Contact either Program Coordinator Roy O'Neil (gotsongs@cs.com) or CSA President Bill Pere (info@ctsongs.com) and let us know your area of interest and how you would like to be involved, and we will assemble a list of aspiring impresarios for each genre. We will return a list of similarly interested folks, and we will provide you with the guidelines you need for organizing a successful event. This is a great way to promote your music, to the public, get experience in producing events, and benefit CSA as well.

The "Day of Praise" event was held in May, and was considered very beneficial to all who participated. It inspired CSA member Peg D'amato to want to organize a second such event, which is going to be held in November (see separate flyer for details). Together, we can make great things happen and bring in new fans and supporters of original music.

And Even More CSA RHYTHM AND NEWS

CSA PRO WORKSHOP

COMING: OCTOBER 16 From New York City: JACK HARDY

OUR FEATURED PRO WORKSHOP and CONCERT FOR 2004

Everyone knows the great songwriters and stars like Suzanne Vega, John Gorka, Shawn Colvin, Richard Shindell and David Massengill. But where did they learn their craft? Who mentored them and critiqued their work to help them achieve their success? --Ask them and they'll tell you, JACK HARDY. From his weekly song workshops in New York's SoHo, to his global reputation as a great songwriter and balladeer, Jack Hardy has made a lasting impact on the contemporary music scene. CSA is pleased to give you the opportunity to learn directly from this great mentor to the stars. Having your song critiqued by Jack Hardy is an experience not to be missed! CRITIQUE WILL BE DONE IN THE ORDER OF REGISTRATION RECEIVED

This is the intersection with Rt 1. Turn Left. onto Rt 1. Down the hill for a very short way and you will be at a 5-way intersection (NOTE: For the evening concert will be in the large church right at your left.) Proceed straight through the 5-way, to main street of downtown Mystic. Cross the drawbridge to the flagpole. At the flagpole, turn left onto Holmes St After you pass some storefronts you'll see a large red brick building on the right. This is #14 Holmes St. To Park, turn right onto Church St (just before the brick building) and left into the parking lot. The Chamber Entrance is the far right door, all the way in the corner as you face the rear of the building. Go down the hall and the conference room is on the right.

FOR FULL DETAILS ON JACK HARDY, Visit www.jackhardy.com

NOTE: We have been getting some calls from New York from folks who are interested in seeing Jack Hardy. Since slots are limited and critique priority is determined by order of registration, we would like CSA members to have preference, so please register early for this exceptional opportunity.

Jack Hardy Biography

Jack Hardy is "a more literate Celtic Townes Van Zandt, grave in his tone and generous in his ideals, as rooted in the present soil and sky of Ireland and America as he is fascinated by the legends of the past" (Roy Kasten, St. Louis Riverfront Times, February 3, 1999).

It is a strange mix of themes ranging from the American West to the ballads and jigs of Celtic ancestors that somehow seems to make sense in the musical world Jack Hardy has created. And it is a separate world to which the listener is transported; a timeless place inhabited by tinkers and cowboys, saints and sinners, elves, virgins and crones. From his extensive travels and reading he has forged an endearing non-academic approach to literature, one that is more at home in the pub than in the classroom. "He clearly seems to enjoy making his listeners think. He may dare his audience to figure out what he is saying, but he also credits them with the intelligence to do so" (Tom Nelligan, Dirty Linen, 1998).

In Europe, where Hardy has toured extensively for over 20 years, he is accepted as an ambassador for American music. In an Italian encyclopedia of rock Jack has a larger entry than many prominent rock stars. "Nothing adventuresome is created in a vacuum," Jack says, "you get people together and the creative sparks fly." The weekly songwriters workshop which he has hosted for many years taught and nurtured countless songwriters, not the least of which are Suzanne Vega, John Gorka, Shawn Colvin, Richard Shindell and David Massengill. The Fast Folk Musical Magazine which he founded and edited, released the first recordings of most of the artists currently headlining folk festivals. This collection of over 100 compilation albums has now been taken over by the Smithsonian.

Gregarious and outgoing when talking about his songs and songwriting in general, Jack fiercely guards the privacy of his personal life. Jack Hardy was born in Indiana, his father a musician, his mother a painter. He grew up in New York, Colorado, and Connecticut, studied opera and literature in college. In 1998, Prime CD reissued his first ten albums in a box set as well as his eleventh album The Passing. In 1996, BCN Records released a tribute album The Songs of Jack Hardy: Of the White Goddess a collection of his Celtic ballads (all sung by women). In 1997, Jack was the recipient of The Kate Wolf Memorial Award given yearly to "an artist who makes a difference through his music" by the World Folk Music Association. In 2000, Prime CD has released Jack's twelfth album Omens.

Omens was recorded live to 24 track analog in two days, using the vintage recording equipment of Prime CD's Theater 99 recording studio in New York City, with no overdubs. The fourteen songs range from the uptempo Celtic "Sile na gCioch" where a tinker finds a dress on the side of the road and gives it to a young lass, to the majestic "West of Dingle" where a woman faces a choice between her lover and her fiddle; from the biting barrage of juxtaposed media images of "I Ought to Know" to the romantic ballad "Only One Sky" and back to the uptempo humorous Clancy Brother-ish "The Boney Bailiff." This album takes you on quite a musical voyage with some of Jack's best poetic imagery, but it is the sweeping beautiful melodies that carry these songs directly into your memory. The players include Jack's current touring band: Tom Duval on electric guitar and harmony (also heard on Jack's albums The Hunter and Civil Wars), Mike Laureanno on Hofner bass and harmony, Dave Anthony on Drums (also heard on Jack's album The Passing), and Kate MacLeod on fiddle. The album also features a buried bonus track containing 19 minutes of Suzanne Vega interviewing Jack on the subject of songwriting
