Combining Arts,
Education, and Community Outreach

1979 - 2005 : 26 Years of Combining Arts, Education, and Community Outreach

Tuesday August 9: - Sacred Heart University, Bridgeport
A CSA All-Critique Session, in preparation for September's Song Screening.
Sunday, August 28: The CSA Summer Showcase/Picnic, Glastonbury

COMING SEPT 17-18: The New England Music Expo
COMING OCTOBER 15: CSA Pro Workshop with Hit Writer Steve Gillette

The CSA meeting for August will be held on Tuesday, August 9, 7:15 pm, at Sacred Heart University (directions on page 2 and at www.ctsongs.com) CSA will present an in-depth all-critique session.

It doesn't take a lot of listening to hear that a song which is a hit may not be an example of good songwriting. It might be a hit because of production, promotion, politics, or many other reasons. Also, a song which is not a hit may be a shining example of great songwriting, but for any number of other reasons, never "makes" it.

One of the most valuable skills in a songwriters tool kit is the ability to critique a song in way that separates factors that may mask the strengths and weaknesses in the actual songwriting itself, apart from the the production, performance, and packaging. By making the underlying music and lyric the best it can be, it provides a strong foundation for the production and promotion to build on. It is important to be able to critique a song within the context of its genre, and in the framework of the writers intent.

For a writer receiving critique, it is important to be open to all input and to able to differentiate opinion from objective analysis and determine what is useful or actionable feedback.

CSA critique sessions give writers and listeners hands-on practice and experience in the valuable art of song critiquing. Also, if you want to submit a song to the September song screening, it must have first been presented at a regular critique session.

To participate, bring a song on cassette or CD, or do it live, with 30 copies of typed lyric sheets, and receive constructive feedback. Critique sessions are a good forum for works in progress or rough demos. For best feedback, note on your lyric sheets the intended genre and audience for your song, and what your goals are (i.e. picked up by a commercial artist, self-produce, etc.). The programs at regular CSA monthly meetings are free to members, $5 to non-members, applicable toward membership if you join within 30 days. Members are encouraged to bring a friend who might be interested in what CSA offers. .

GET A TAX DEDUCTION FOR YOUR OLD STUFF !

If you have any old music or office equipment lying around or just old "stuff" that you don't need, consider donating it to CSA and you'll get a generous tax deduction !

CSA is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization and all items donated to us can be deducted at their maximum fair market value. We have helped many folks get nice deductions for their old items, which certainly can be useful to us either in our regular CSA programs or our community outreach programs through LUNCH.

We can use any office equipment and supplies, old computers, any type of music and studio equipment, and any type of item that could be used for auction or raffle. If you're thinking of putting things on consignment or e-bay, consider that after the commissions and fees are taken, what you actually receive might not be as much as you might get from a tax deduction at maximum market value.

If you have anything that you might like to donate, contact Bill Pere at bill@billpere.com, or call 860-572-9285.

NEW RELEASE !

The 10th CSA compilation recording. Since 1989, CSA has made 10 compilation albums of songs that have passed the CSA screening process, plus 3 special holiday recordings.

This new CD is very special in that it is really TWO CD's in one !. It contains nine new songs from the last year of screening, PLUS, for the first time ever on CD, the original 11 songs that were on the very first CSA compilation in 1989. Of the 16 writers on that first collection, 11 are still members of CSA.

This is a great side-by-side look at two snapshots in time. The recording and production technology had changed dramatically over the years, but a good song remains timeless.

MEET OUR SPECIAL GUEST FOR OUR FALL PRO WORKSHOP

STEVE GILLETTE

with Cindy Mangsen

Saturday October 15 1-5pm, Mystic Chamber of Commerce. Concert at 7:30pm

In a musical age created by the singer-songwriter, Steve Gillette has long been considered to be one of the finest. His music has inspired glowing reviews from the critics and the deep loyalty of his fans. Since Ian and Sylvia first recorded Darcy Farrow in 1966, Steve's songs have been sung by dozens of major artists including Garth Brooks, John Denver, Nanci Griffith, Waylon Jennings, Anne Murray, Tony Rice, Kenny Rogers, Linda Ronstadt, Spanky and Our Gang, Jerry Jeff Walker, Jennifer Warnes, Don Williams, and Tammy Wynette. Steve's first album, Steve Gillette, originally released in the Spring of 1968, has been reissued by Vanguard on compact disc. The album includes guest performances by Buffy Saint Marie, Bruce Langhorne and Dick Rosmini.

In addition to performing in 31 countries, Steve has performed on over 100 college campuses and has taught numerous workshops and seminars on songwriting, guitar theory, and record production. Steve is the author of the book Songwriting and the Creative Process, published by The Sing Out Press in 1995. Steve's film credits include writing and singing the main title theme for M.G.M.'s The Outfit, Walt Disney's The Pond, The Grass Is Greener, Summer Run, and Door To Door. Steve has also written songs for the Walt Disney characters Jiminy Cricket, Dumbo, Rainbow Brite, and Winnie-the-Pooh.

Steve traveled to Japan with the "Day Of The Dolphin" concert series in Tokyo in 1976, and has been active in the anti-nuclear movement and other social causes. He has received ASCAP and BMI performance awards, and was honored by the World Folk Music Association as a 1988 nominee for the Kate Wolf Award. Steve has been a featured performer at many festivals, including Clearwater's Hudson River Revival, Fox Hollow, The International Songwriters Festival at Frutigen (Switzerland), The Mariposa Folk Festival, The Old Songs Festival, Owen Sound Summerfolk Festival, The Philadelphia Folk Music Festival, The Vancouver Folk Festival, The Walnut Valley Festival, The Winnipeg Folk Festival, and is a director and long time participant in The Kerrville Folk Festival.

Steve's second album, Back On the Street Again, was produced by John Ware for Outpost Records, with help from Spanky McFarland and Emmy Lou Harris' Hot Band. Steve's third album alone...direct (solo voice and guitar) was recorded by the direct-to-disc process and produced by John DelGatto on Sierra Records.

Graham Nash produced Steve's fourth album, A Little Warmth, which was released on Flying Fish Records in 1979. Appearing on this album were Johnny Barbatta and Pete Sears from The Jefferson Starship, Graham Nash, David Lindley, and Jennifer Warnes. The CD was reissued by Compass Rose Music in 2002.

Since their marriage in April of 1989, Steve Gillette and Cindy Mangsen have been traveling, performing and recording together. Their first album, Live In Concert recorded at The Ark in Ann Arbor, is available from their own company, Compass Rose Music, and was on many "10 Best" lists when it was released in 1991. A second duet album called The Light of the Day was named Top Folk Album of 1996 by Rich Warren (WFMT, Chicago) and Matt Watroba (WDET, Detroit). The couple's newest album, released in February of 2001, is called A Sense of Place (Redwing 5409), and is a portrait of New England in songs and tunes. Steve's latest collaboration is a quartet album with Cindy, Anne Hills, and Michael Smith, entitled Fourtol (Appleseed Records, 2003). The album is a collection of story-songs, new and old, sung in full four-part harmony, and has become a favorite of folk-radio programmers.

A collection of twelve of Steve's original songs was produced in Nashville by Jim Rooney in 1992. The album, called The Ways of the World (Compass Rose), features studio performances by Stuart Duncan, Mark Howard, Roy Huskey Jr., Kenny Malone, and Mark Schatz. Steve's latest solo recording is entitled Texas & Tennessee (Redwing Music, 1998), with back-up from Charles Cochran, Mark Graham, Mark Schatz, Pete Sutherland, Pete Wasner, Mike Williams and others. The album was named one of 1998's Top Ten Folk Albums by Tower Records' Pulse Magazine.

SIGN UP NOW FOR THIS GREAT OPPORTUNITY TO SPEND SOME TIME WITH ONE OF TODAY'S GREAT SONGWRITERS AND PRESENTERS. SPACE IS LIMITED AND SONGS WILL BE CRITIQUED IN THE ORDER OF REGISTRATION.

ANNOUNCING: A NEW CSA COMPILATION CD

CSA is now accepting submissions for one of our special THEMED compilation CD's

In addition to the 10 general compilation albums we have released over the years, we have also produced three Holiday CD's which have been very popular. Now, we are pleased to announce the first CSA compilation CD for Spiritual/Inspiration songs. Based on our successful "Day of Praise" programs, it is clear that there is a lot of excellent material among our members in the area of gospel/spiritual and inspirational music.

Between now and October 1, we will be accepting songs for consideration for inclusion on this new project. Here are the specifics:

- Songs must be of a Spiritual, Gospel or Inspirational nature, in any musical style.
- Songs must be final versions which have undergone any appropriate re-writing, and which are produced to CD master standards with clear vocals.
- In the case of multiple writers, at least one writer must be a current CSA member.
- The Writer(s) agree to give CSA royalty-free use of the song for the purpose of producing this compilation CD. Writer(s) retain full ownership and control of their copyrights and publishing rights.
- The songs cannot currently be under contract to any third party (e.g. a publisher) and the writer(s) must own the song or have permission to use it.
- BY OCTOBER 1 2005, Submit up to two songs, of studio-produced CD quality, with lyric sheets to: CSA, PO Box 511, Mystic CT 06355. Provide all your contact information -- including e-mail -- on the CD and on the lyric sheets
- Submission of a song does NOT guarantee acceptance. It is CSA's sole discretion as to which songs to include in the compilation, based on number of available tracks, production values, thematic content, and overall fit with other songs.
- Songs submitted but which are not included in this compilation may be kept on file to be considered for a future compilation
- Writer(s) of songs that are accepted for inclusion will be asked to sign a release form and pay a $10 fee toward the production costs.

IF YOU HAVE A SONG AND ARE NOT SURE IF THE PRODUCTION IS UP TO STANDARDS, or IF YOU HAVE ANY OTHER QUESTIONS regarding this project, contact Bill Pere (info@ctsongs.com)

SHARE THE JOURNEY !

We would like to have this compilation done before the next CSA Day of Praise on October 22.

SEND YOUR SONGS IN NOW !

SONG CRITIQUES Members may bring a song or lyric on cassette to the monthly meeting for critiquing by fellow members. Please bring 30-40 copies of typed lyric sheet. Out-of-State members may have their songs or lyrics critiqued by sending one submission with 40 typed copies of lyrics to: CSA, 51 Hillcrest Ave, Watertown, CT 06795. Include a double stamped return envelope. Members are encouraged to write their comments on the sheets which can provide valuable feedback to the writer(s). Comments by the group will be recorded at the end of your song (do not remove the record-protect tabs from the cassette). Please note that since critiquing is designed to give constructive feedback and suggestions for improvement, songs which are meant only to be shared for self expression (as opposed to critiqued for improvement) should not be submitted. These can be presented in song-sharing opportunities.
